Welcome back. I do hope that you have all enjoyed some rest and relaxation during the half term break. Your children may well have been consolidating work, looking ahead or simply taking some time for themselves, engaging in many different activities. The next six weeks until Christmas are crucial to the children's continued progress this academic year, so we encourage all to be fully engaged. Thank you to parents who attended last terms parents evening, it was lovely to see so many of you and share in your children's achievements.

The children from Year 5 held a beautiful Remembrance Service just before the half term for their parents and families which was very well received and attended. Thank you Year 5.

A big thank you to all the PTA who organised a wonderful disco for the children, just before half term. You raised just over £900. These funds will be going towards new iPads for the children.
